This song came to me while I was cycling to a singing session. I passed a filling station, and the thought that I didn't need to stop there became this song.

Feel free to add verses, for example:
 I don't need Tesco woo hoo! Coz I'm growing my own.
 I don't need Asda woo hoo! Coz I'm growing my own,
 I just need sunshine for my plants,
 and water and manure,
 and a little bit of love and care to keep them growing.

Also please feel free to make up your own oohs, huh hah's, and possibly add some wheeee's!
