

Cave's Open Eye

by Neal and Gill Jolly

$\text{♩} = 80$

Soprano
Be-tween a cave's op-en eye and a sea's hamm-er-ing touch

Alto

Tenor
s

Bass

6

S.
We sing our sor-row, hope and joy

A.

T. s

B.

Copyright Neal and Gill Jolly 2020

This song was stimulated by an inscription which is carved on a stone plaque overlooking Tintagel Haven in North Cornwall. We often pass this spot on our coastal walks. Investigation of the source of those words have not borne fruit.

The inscription makes the first two lines of this song. We like to sing it in our regular singing cave at Bossiney Haven